

PORT ADRIANO

Port Adriano at Düsseldorf's BOOT

Mallorca, January 17th 2019

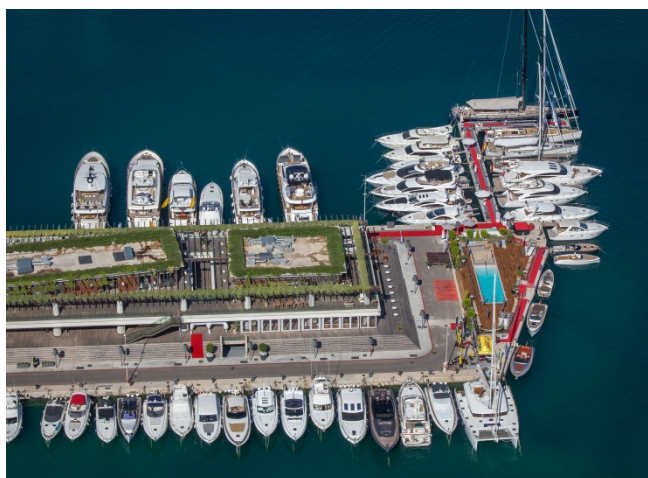

The BOOT Düsseldorf fair, one of the most important nautical events in Europe, kicks off one more year.

From 19th to 27th January, Port Adriano will be present on this 50th edition of the popular nautical fair. This year it will be in collaboration with Sunseeker International, sharing a booth with the renowned British manufacturer of luxury motor yachts whose Sunseeker Mallorca headquarters are located in Port Adriano.

Port Adriano in this edition presents its fantastic range of services, which position it as one of the most exclusive and best equipped ports in the Mediterranean, its great capacity to house ships from 6 to 100 meters and its 10,000 m² dry dock.

In addition to its great nautical offer, Port Adriano is one of the most important leisure and gastronomic hubs in Mallorca.

Port Adriano is consolidated as a fully operational marina that is, all year round, beyond the summer season, in a unique location to explore the incredible offer of the Balearic Islands. Port Adriano also stands out for its wide range of activities, such as concerts by national and international artists, regattas, theatrical shows, sports and solidarity activities, gastronomy festivals, boat shows, events related to film and photography ... A broad agenda in a unique environment that makes it the most lively port on the island.

For more information www.portadriano.com

convoca

Ferrán Agulló, 5- 08021 Barcelona – Spain (+34)934 14 38 55 - convoca@convoca.com
www.convoca.com